EVENTS OF INTEREST IN AND OUT OF TOWN

TO VISIT AT DELAWARE WATER GAP.

Three New Supreme Court Hosts for Next Winter Season.

The Speaker and Mrs. Champ Clark Return From Wildwood—Departures—Notes.

The Supreme Court circle so seldom presents a variety of new phases in a single season that three new homes to be opened by members of that body before December 1 is almost exciting.

Mr. Justice John H. Clarke, who has recently been confirmed, is now at the Shoreham, where Mr. Justice McReynolds has made his home since entering official life here, and will probably select a permanent residence before leaving for the rest of the summer.

Bachelors in the Supreme Court always present an interesting phase to social life, and Mr. Justice McReynolds and Mr. Justice Clarke are both single.

Mr. Justice McReynolds, who has formerly lived in a hotel and done all his entertaining in that way, has taken several apartments in a downtown apartment house convenient to the White House, clubs and theaters and will have them turned into one large apartment, with room for his library of several thousand volumes.

Mr. Justice and Mrs. Brandeis will return here in time to settle in a new home before the Supreme Court opens in the fall.

The Speaker and Mrs. Champ Clark returned last evening from Wildwood, N. J., where they were the guests of former Representative and Mrs. J. Thompson Baker.

Miss Sarah Stone Hickling, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. D. Percy Hickling, left Washington yesterday for the Delaware Water Gap, where she will be the guest of Miss Mary Van Fossen of this city for two weeks. Later she will motor through Pennsylvania, stopping for an indefinite visit in Pittsburgh.

Mr. Bennett C. Clark, who has been in New York for a few days, is expected to return today.

The Secretary of War, Mr. Newton D. Baker, left Washington this afternoon for Plattsburg, N. Y., accompanied by Maj. Gen. Hugh L. Scott, where they will observe a part of the four-day "bake" of the 7,000 recruits at the camp. They will return here Thursday evening.

The counselor of the State Department and Mrs. Frank L. Polk arrived in Washington yesterday from Southampton, Long Island, where they have a cottage for the summer. Mr. and Mrs. Polk expect to remain here until August 24, when they will go to Bar Harbor.

The solicitor of the State Department and Mrs. C. Johnson entertained at a theater box party last night followed by supper.

Their guests were Representative and Mrs. Hubert Dent and Mr. and Mrs. Wade H. Ellis.

Mrs. Myers, wife of Senator Henry L. Myers of Montana, left yesterday with their daughter, Miss Myers, for their home in Hamilton.

Judge and Mrs. Henry D. Clayton, who stopped off in Washington for a stay of several days with Senator and Mrs. Ollie James, en route from Panama, where Judge Clayton has been holding court, left last evening for Kentucky, where they will be the guest of Mrs. Clayton's mother.

Mrs. Samuel A. Kimberly and her mother, Mrs. William H. Draper, have gone to Lyme, Conn., for a three-month stay in the artist colony there. Mrs. Kimberly made a visit of several weeks at Old Point Comfort in July.

Mrs. Thomas W. Symons, Miss Margaret P. Symons, Mrs. Francis B. Loring and Miss Lydia Loring, all of this city, were guests at dinner last night at the Greenbrier Hotel, at White Sulphur Springs, of Misses Jeanne and Katherine McLaughlin of New Brunswick, N. J.

Mr. Frederic A. Delano, Miss Delano and Miss Laura Delano of this city are at the Maplewood Hotel, at Pittsfield, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. James Zander announce the marriage of their daughter Ramona and Mr. William Osborn Roberts Friday, July 21, at Oakland, Cal.

The bride is well known in this city, where she spent two years with her grandmother, Mrs. E. B. Olney, and was prominent in musical circles.

The minister of China, Mr. Koo, is making a short visit at the location on 19th street, having motored from Buena Vista Springs, Pa., where Mr. Koo is spending the summer. He will return to the mountain resort in a short time.

Mr. Kollang Yih, the second Chinese secretary, has returned to the legation from Blue Ridge Summit, where he spent some days.

Mrs. Calvin Satterfield and her daughters, Miss Phoebe Satterfield and Miss Lindsay Satterfield, and her son, Fred, are at Cape May, where they expect to remain until autumn. Mr. Satterfield will resume his studies at the University of Virginia in the fall.

Mrs. Leigh C. Palmer is at Newport, R. I.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Belmont will entertain at a concert Saturday afternoon at Belmont, their place at Newport.

Mrs. M. Levy of North Carolina, who spent several weeks in New York and on the Jersey coast, is here on a visit to her sister, Mrs. George Friedlander, en route to her home in Rutherfordton.

Miss Clara A. Dodge of Troy, N. Y., is visiting her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Frear of 223 8th street northeast, until Saturday, when she will return to Troy.

Cards have been received here announcing the marriage of Mrs. Pauline Weaver Swenson, formerly of this city, and Mr. Hector McLeod of Vancouver, British Columbia. The ceremony took place in Winnipeg July 25.

Mr. and Mrs. McLeod will make their home in Vancouver.

Miss Virginia Heth and Miss Pickett Heth stopped at the White Sulphur Springs and the Hot Springs while motoring with a party of friends through Virginia.

Capt. and Mrs. David A. Hall have closed their apartments at the Cairo and are to spend the summer in Rhode Island and Maine.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ritchie, Jr., and son left today for a month in the mountains of West Virginia.

Dr. and Mrs. Thomas V. Hammond of 2023 Florida avenue announce the marriage of their daughter Virginia to Mr. Sydney John Whalen of Canton, Ohio, at Bedford Springs, Pa., Saturday, July 29, 1916.

MISS SARAH STONE HICKLING.

VIRGINIA IS IN THE LEAD IN MANGANESE OUTPUT

Ahead of All Other States in Production, According to Expert's Report on Domestic Supply.

Virginia has contributed more heavily than any other state to the domestic production of manganese ore, according to a report recently made on some manganese mines in Virginia and Maryland by D. F. Hewett of the United States geological survey. The domestic supplies have furnished only a small fraction of the manganese required by our industries—in 1915 only about 3 per cent, and from 1910 to 1914 only 1 per cent.

The demand for large amounts of manganese ore in this country began in the period 1865—1870, with the introduction of the Bessemer and open-hearth processes of steel making, and has grown enormously. Five of the six deposits described in this report are on the east side of the valley that lies west of the Blue Ridge and is commonly known as the Great Valley of Virginia. The other deposit lies well east of the Blue Ridge, in the Piedmont region. Pallomelane is the commonest manganese mineral of all the ores, but manganite and wad are also present. The ores are all of the near-surface origin and were formed mainly through the replacement of clays and schist by manganese carried in solution in the ground water. The greatest depth to which the ores have been traced is 260 feet. It is considered improbable that manganese ores in any of the Virginia or Maryland deposits will extend to depths more than 500 feet.

To Aid in Getting Recruits.

Postmasters throughout the country are instructed in an order issued by the Post Office Department to co-operate as far as is practicable with officers of the National Guard in the matter of obtaining recruits for the guard. They are instructed to post in the lobbies of the post offices and to distribute posters which may be sent to them for that purpose.
